

Central Regional Health School

Teacher Job Description: Care & Protection, Health

Name:

CRHS employs qualified teachers to develop, implement, assess and evaluate teaching and learning programmes for students admitted/enrolled to the school.

All CRHS students have programmes detailed in an individual plan developed in consultation with the student and as appropriate, their whānau, regular school and other agencies working with the student and their family.

All teachers are required to meet the criteria for quality teaching as described in the Education Council of Aotearoa New Zealand Standards for the Teaching Profession and Code of Professional Responsibility. Teachers maintain registration and a current practising certificate and are attested against the professional standards for teachers as detailed in their Collective Agreement.

Personal attributes indicative of success in this highly demanding teaching and learning environment are listed in the Person Specification for this position.

In addition, CRHS teachers are required to:

- Complete planning, record management, reporting and communications within the agreed timelines and in accordance with documented expectations (including eTAP)
- Provide data for reporting when required
- Complete appraisal and professional inquiry as required
- Complete professional development as detailed in the Individual Development Plan formulated as part of the appraisal process
- Abide by the CRHS Code of Conduct and ensure that all behaviours are consistent with the school's values
- To read the CRHS Operations Manual at least annually (and where appropriate NZQA accreditation documentation)
- Complete MAPA training (Management of potential or actual aggression)
- Where specified, fulfill the areas of delegated authority
- Be available to work across all strands of the school
- Maintain a full clean NZ driver's licence and own a suitable vehicle for work related purposes.
